Color changing lighting touches us on a very deep intuitive level. Whether you realize it or not, colors speak very loud to our subconscious and have a positive or negative reaction within 90 seconds. The lighting you select for a room will impact you on a very deep level every time you spend time in that room so consciously choosing the right color light for your home or office design with this in mind is very important.

Choosing a lighting scheme for the room you're decorating should take into consideration the people who will most frequently be in the room and what energy or feelings you may want to evoke or create in that atmosphere.

THE HEALING POWER OF COLOR: CHROMATHERAPY
